Best for newspaper
High, consistent quality
Available in colour
Also for heatset

Customer advantages

When producing material in large print runs – such as newspapers, supplements and DM – it is important that the paper maintains a high, consistent quality. It must also combine the stringent requirements placed on economics, grammage and printing result. Holmen News offers this optimal mix.

Opportunities

Financial newspaper have done it, as have daily newspaper. You also have the option of using coloured newsprint to profile your product and attract attention in an economically beneficial way.
